

Cultural Resources Internship

Archeology • Ethnography • History

Learning through experience...

Santa Monica Mountains National Recreation Area, a unit of the National Park System, is looking for interns to contribute to the preservation and management of cultural resources.

- Organize existing cultural resources items, which include artifacts, records, oral histories and bibliographies.
- Transcribe interview tapes for studies about contemporary ethnography of the Chumash and Tongva Native American Indians and/or local history.
- Research specific sites, structures, objects or people related to the Santa Monica Mountains.

To Qualify:

- ~ Background in Anthropology, Geography, History, or Native American studies.
- ~ Knowledge or interest in local history.

Work Conditions:

- ~ Work is somewhat sedentary and requires sitting, standing, and stooping in an office environment.
- ~ Occasional work in field situations involve driving, walking and moderate activity.
- ~ Valid driver's license is required.
- ~ Work in Museum Research building at Rocky Oaks.
- ~ Work full or part time, on weekdays.

How to Apply:

Send letter of application, resume, three references and unofficial transcript by e-mail to sheila_braden@nps.gov or regular mail to:

Sheila Braden, National Park Service
401 West Hillcrest Drive
Thousand Oaks, CA 91360
805-370-2394 www.nps.gov/samo/interns

We offer:

Flexible start dates

*Flexible start times
(16-40 hours per week)*

*Transportation
reimbursement
($10 per day)*

Housing may be available